Family Photos: Reworked – Anne-Marie Glasheen (together with John Levett)

March 10, 2010 by catherinefraher

Viewfinder Photography Gallery

8-25 April

Private View 8 April 7.00-9.00pm

Anne-Marie's series uses old and new photographs, old and new techniques, and features three generations of her maternal family. Anne-Marie's great-grandfather was a master baker in Lee High Road. Her grandfather was a butcher, also in Lee High Road, before enlisting. She presents reproductions of original family prints, images created combining these with digital ones, and reworked pinhole shots of significant addresses; poems and texts inspired by stories told and information gleaned.
